

ALASKA STATE 4-H HORSE CONTEST RULES BOOK

all times. At no time will disrespectful behavior (be it toward contest officials, other contestants or coaches, or the general public) be tolerated. Failure to comply may result in immediate disqualification of any individuals, teams to the horse industry can be disqualified at the discretion of the judge(s).

ALASKA STATE 4-H HORSE PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST RULES

all times. At no time will disrespectful behavior (be it toward contest officials, other contestants or coaches, or the general public) be tolerated. Failure to comply may result in immediate disqualification of any individuals, teams can be disqualified at the discretion of the judge(s).

will be disqualified for using any visual aid, including handouts, prior to, during and after the speech.

10. Ties will be broken by: first, the judges accumulated delivery score; second, the judges accumulated organization score; and third, on content and accuracy scores.

3. Did the speaker's facial expressions reflect the mood of the speech?

2. Did the speech reflect the thoughts and personality of the speaker?

ALASKA STATE 4-H HORSE BOWL CONTEST RULES

1.

2.

- a. Following the final question, the team with the highest number of points shall be declared the winner of that match.
- b. In the event of a tie after the designated number of questions, five (5) additional toss-up questions will be asked. If a tie still remains after the overtime, additional questions will be asked and the first team to win a Hippology is an activity that can make learning fun for 4-H members by letting them exhibit their knowledge and understanding of equine science and husbandry in a friendly but competitive setting.

members, all will compete; however, the lowest score in each phase will be dropped. For those teams consisting

2. Teams may be selected by any means appropriate to the district they represent and must be certified as eligible

b. Projected slides to be identified as to breed, color, color pattern, activity, proper appointments, etc.

will be given a sheet of paper to write their answers on; DO NOT WRITE ON THE STATION PAPER. At the contest, and with the same official placings and cuts that apply to the judging contest. In extreme emergency,

ALASKA STATE 4-H HORSE JUDGING CONTEST RULES

The Alaska Youth Horse Judging Contest is an educational experience that gives youth a greater understanding of horse selection and performance evaluation. Participants gain experience in the decision-making process by determining and ranking four horses in a class from the most desirable to the least desirable traits/performance. Participants develop speaking skills through individually presenting an oral defense of their placing.

Alaska. Youth may participate as individuals or as team members.

placings on the placing card, indicate the cuts to be made, and file that card with the superintendents for final

3. When the contestant has finished giving reasons, the reason listener will place the reason score upon the in that division will be listed first.

classes will be listed first.

shall be listed first.

classes shall be listed first.

- e. If still tied, the contestant or team with the highest overall placing score will be listed first.
- f. If still tied, the contestant or team with the highest single class reasons score will be listed first.
- g. If contestants are still tied from above, the youngest contestant or team shall be listed first.

Ribbons will be presented to the top five teams and the top five individuals in each of the three age

--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--

-

--	--	--	--

--	--	--	--

Adapted from Western National Roundup Contest