CARES Act Student Awards Information

The University of Alaska Fairbanks has awarded the student portion of CARES Act funding from the U.S. Department of Education in the amount of $1,083,326*. These awards are to help with expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus, including cost of attendance, such as food, housing, course materials, technology, healthcare, and child care. UAF's plan was established to assist students with the greatest need, in accordance with federal guidelines.

Awards have been broken into two separate categories:

UAF CARES Relief Grant

Students who were identified as having the greatest need were selected based on Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) range from information provided on the FAFSA and the number of face-to-face classes that were switched to online in March. A total of $1,025,805.00 (99% of the CARES initial allocation) has been awarded to 2011 students who qualify for this category. Students need not apply for this award, it has already been posted to student accounts and refunds will occur starting April 30. Recipients of this group were notified directly via email and text message.

UAF CARES Additional Relief Grant

$7,521 (<1% of the CARES initial allocation) has been awarded to 5 students as Emergency Scholarships. This provided a mechanism for those students who did not meet the greatest need criteria, to apply for assistance with qualifying expenses due to the coronavirus disruption

Students awarded from either category met the following criteria:

Enrolled in in person spring 2020 semester course
Admitted as a degree seeking student to UAF

UAF CRPSAA Relief Grant

UAF Higher Ed COVID Relief 3
